

As Seen On TV

Was that Pointer's Delivery you saw on the Travel Channel and Food Network -- Yes it was! Pointer's has been honored with the #8 position in the Travel Channel's "Top Ten Best Places to Pig Out" and the #3 position in the Food Network's "Top Five Pizzas with Pizzaz".

What's all the buzz about? We all know Pointer's mixes up a house-made spicy-sweet sauce everyday and tops every pie with the freshest meats and veggies...so certainly Pointer's should earn national attention on flavor alone. But the big star at Pointer's, the huge news is the 28" Pointersaurus Pizza!

The TV shows you've seen were recorded a little while back, and since filming some facts might have changed. To date there have now been 13 teams who have won the $500 Pointersaurus challenge.
